You Can Accomplish Anything You Choose

*Try to see yourself as you really are-
Powerful, sensitive, determined and gracious.
See yourself achieving everything you choose to achieve and being exactly what you want to be.*

*See yourself flourishing and conquering all limitations.
See yourself for who you really are and what you are capable of Someone who can accomplish anything.*

The New Science Building & Reception

Science Laboratory Center Dedication

Science Laboratory Center Dedication Salutes Learning Through Discovery

Dedication ceremonies for the newly opened $26 million Science Laboratory Center at California State University, Fullerton was Saturday, April 16, 1994, on the lawn south of the center.

Dr. William A. Clemens of UC Berkeley, president of both the California Academy of Sciences and the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology, keynotes the "Learning Through Discovery" event.

Over 450 students, faculty, staff and alumni came together for the opening of the new science lab center.

Business and industry leaders were among the audience members, as well as alumni, emeriti, faculty, staff and students.

The 60,000 square-foot structure includes 57 laboratories used for research and teaching in the School of Natural Science and Mathematics. The facility features a marine aquarium, new laboratory facilities for holography, laser and fiber optics as well as a physiology computer room. It is also the only university science laboratory building in California in which all the inside air is replaced with fresh, outside air.

Also enjoying the ceremonies with Larry Rovira (right), was Vince Fabrizio, a former AS President and now a member of the CSUF Alumni Association.

Miles D. McCarthy (left), interim president in 1981, sat through the ceremony enjoying the speakers and special guests. Prior to the new science center's opening, classes and research were held in Miles D. McCarthy Hall, named after Mr. McCarthy himself. Opened in 1963, McCarthy Hall is the oldest building on campus.

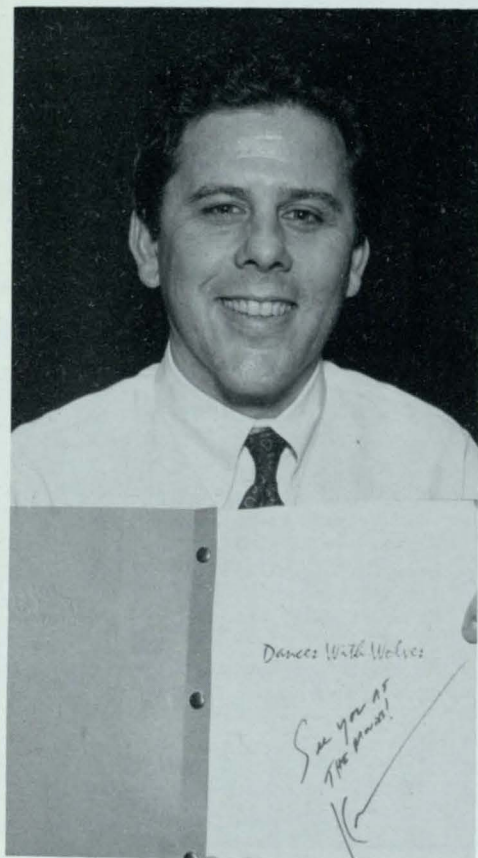

Jewel Plummer Cobb (left), former President of CSUF, and Mark Diefenderfer (far right), son of the late James Diefenderfer who was also Dean of Natural Science and Mathematics, joined a few of the speakers to unveil the dedication plaque donated by the CSUF Alumni Association.

A Bid Of Excitement

What would you pay for a batting practice session with LA Dodgers manager Tommy Lasorda, or round-trip tickets for two anywhere in the world Delta Air Lines flies? Successful bidders at the university's third annual "A Bid Of Excitement" auction paid $1,150 and $2,500 respectively, to help support university programs and scholarships. The more than $106,000 netted set a fund-raising record for a California State University system special event. John Wooden, former UCLA basketball coach, was the keynote speaker and signed autographs throughout the evening.

Bidders perused more than 200 items in Titan Pavilion offered during the silent auction that included travel and golf packages, entertainment and restaurant packages, health club memberships, art works, gift certificates, and sports memorabilia. Exotic travel packages, concert and sporting event tickets, and a Good-year Blimp ride were among items featured in the live auction.

Alumnus Brian Fairley displays a "Dances With Wolves" script autographed by fellow grad Kevin Costner that he nabbed for $700.

Former UCLA coach John Wooden is seen here with Titan basketball coach Brad Holland. Holland was the national player Wooden recruited for UCLA.

Students and alumni check out the various items up for auction.

Professor For A Day

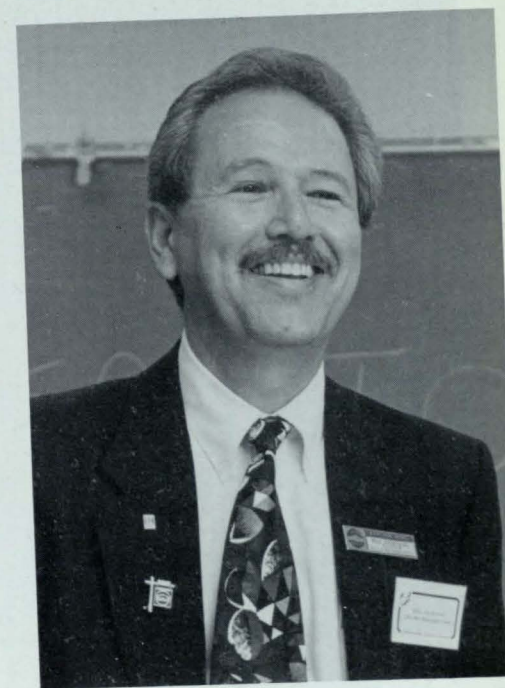

Professor for a Day brought more than 35 alumni back to campus in March to the School of Business Administration and Economics for an event sponsored jointly by the school and Alumni Relations.

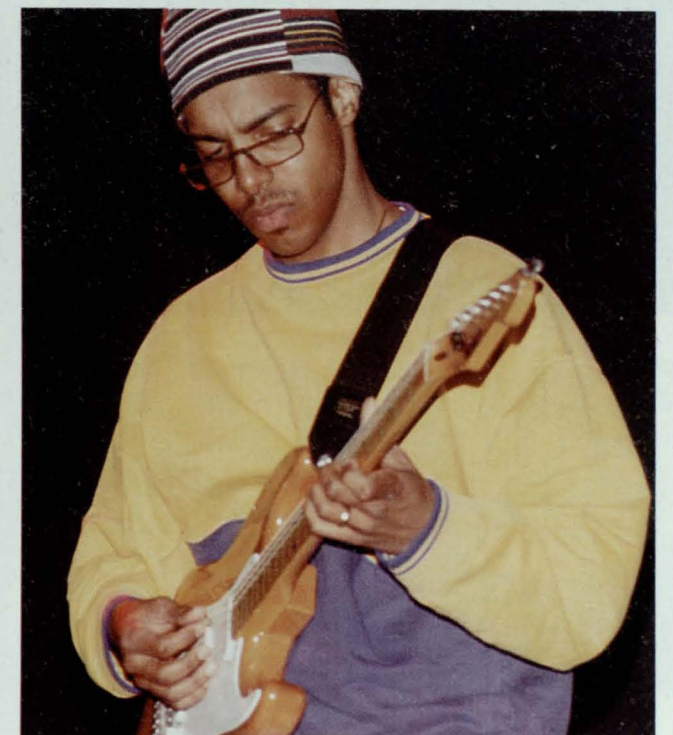

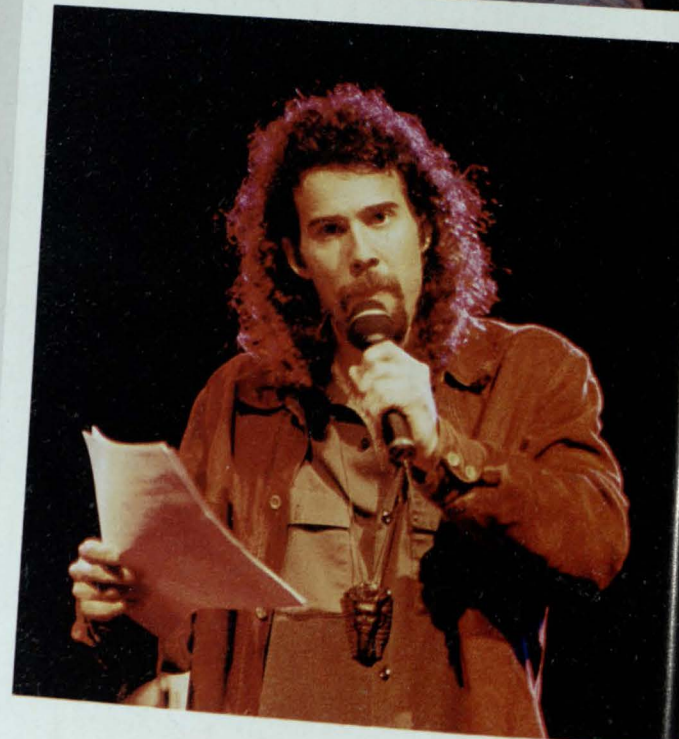

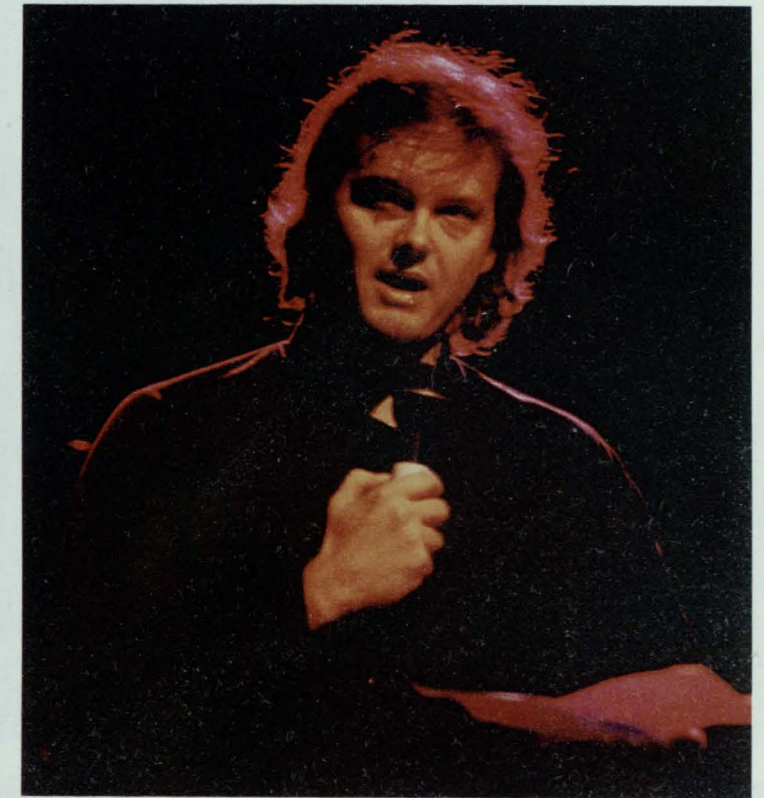

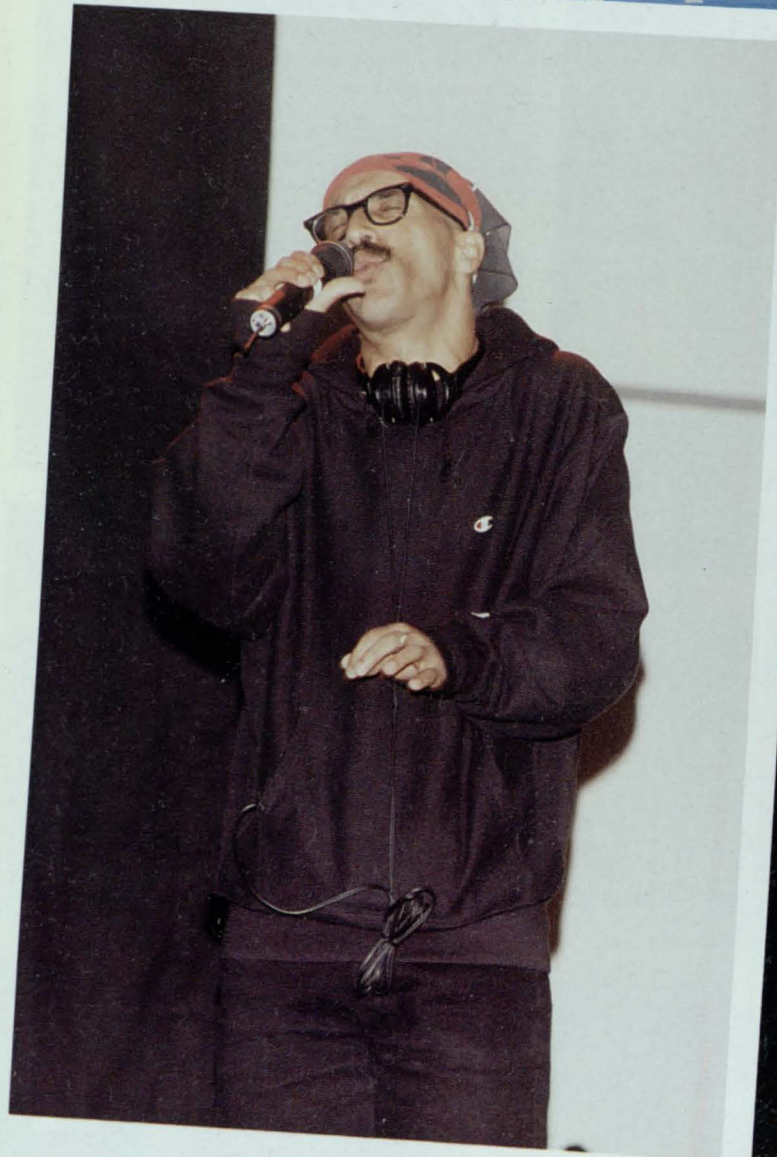

"What was so rewarding about the day was how excited the alumni were to come back and talk with students," said Mary Jacobson, director of Alumni Relations. "They remembered that one of the best parts of being a student was interacting with 'real world' professionals. By coming back to campus, this was their way of continuing that relationship."

Young Alumni

Over 300 1994 graduates and young alumni attended the first annual Graduation Celebration sponsored by the CSUF Alumni Association on May 19. Attendees were treated to complimentary food and beverages to celebrate the achievements of our newest alumni. In addition to the CSUF Alumni travel mugs that were given out to the first 150 to arrive at the celebration, door prizes consisting of sweatshirts, hats and other CSUF alumni memorabilia were won by several lucky partygoers.

Congratulations Class Of 1994

Vision And Visionaries

Vision and Visionaries honoree Linda Woolverton (center), Class of '79, joins in the celebration with her former teachers Dr. Dean Hess and Dr. Sallie Mitchell of the Theater and Dance Department.

Class of '72 political science graduate and Vision and Visionaries honoree Raul Tapia greets his former English instructor Marjorie Farmer, whom he hadn't seen since his freshman days at CSUF.

Lara Teeter of the Theater and Dance Department performs in the opening number.

Musical tributes were sung to the honorees by the Cal State Fullerton Troupers, advanced students in the University's School of the Arts.

Night Of The Pachyderm

Night of the pachyderm welcomed alumni and their families back to campus in January for a combined evening of Titan basketball and the Annual Meeting of the Alumni Association.

Stephen Christensen, Class of '93, brought along his two daughters, and all appeared to be having a great time at the festivities.

During the half-time festivities Fred Williams, Class of '86, helped his 19-month-old son, Jacob, sink a basket.

People

As you join over 100,000 Cal State Fullerton alumni, remain proud of your hard work, dedication and accomplishments. I am certain that as you have made your presence felt here at Fullerton, you will also make your mark on the world and your future endeavors.

The knowledge and skills you have acquired and relationships formed will enrich your life and society. We seek leaders like you for growth and renewal. I urge you to become an active participant in the community and the CSUF Alumni Association.

*President, California
State University, Fullerton*

Milton A. Gordon

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1994! Your dedication and hard work has paid off. You are officially an alumnus of CSUF and, by graduating, you have achieved a tremendous goal in your life. You are now among the 100,000 alumni who have received degrees from CSUF and who represent our university's commitment to excellence.

We encourage you to keep your ties with CSUF by working with the Alumni Association in developing the future of the university. Continued involvement with Cal State Fullerton can be a rewarding experience, as many of our members can attest. As an alum, you can now make a positive contribution to assist future students and the university. Now, more than ever before, CSUF needs the support of its alumni. We hope that we can count on your help in the coming years.

Again, congratulations to you for a degree well deserved. It is my hope that your CSUF experience will assist you in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Larry Rovira (Class of '85)

(bottom middle) Starting with an unusually heavy snowfall, no winter thaws, and a wet summer, the Midwest faced the worst floods in American history.

(bottom right) Pope John Paul II visited the United States for a historic four day trip.

(below) Indicted on charges of being the mastermind of the plot to blow up the World Trade Center as well as other targets, Sheik Omar Abdel-Rahman. The blind cleric's radical, anti-Western preaching antagonized many Americans.

As President of the Associated Students, Inc. it is my pleasure to congratulate you on earning your degree from Cal State Fullerton. Being a fellow classmate I realize the pressures and hard work you have had to endure in order to achieve this most honored accomplishment.

In the past few years you have studied, explored, grown, matured and met many objectives in your academic career. You have also contributed to the educational foundation of this institution by testing concepts and theories in your class work, participating in campus groups and interacting with faculty and staff members through projects or campus jobs.

Throughout your academic struggles you have shown strength in discipline, dedication and achievement. It is my hope that these qualities along with your personal experiences at CSUF will aid you in your future endeavors.

Again, I extend to you my sincere congratulations and hope that success follows you as you strive to reach many more career and personal goals.

Sincerely,

(top middle) At 4:31am on Monday, January 17, 1994 a 6.6 (Richter scale) earthquake centered in the Northridge area of the San Fernando Valley claimed 61 lives and caused approximately $30 billion in damage.

(bottom middle) During the ninth inning of the sixth game Joe Carter of the Toronto Blue Jays hit one of the most dramatic home runs in the history of the World Series. Toronto beat the Philadelphia Phillies to win their second straight title.

(far right top) In October Michael Jordan announced his retirement from pro basketball, robbing the game of a breathtaking acrobat who led the NBA in scoring the past seven years. In the spring Jordan began a career in professional baseball, earning a spot on a minor league team.

(far middle) The world was shocked when alternative grunge band Nirvana's lead singer Kurt Cobain committed suicide in his Seattle home. Nirvana had astounding success, including winning numerous awards and selling platinum records.

(far bottom) Mere weeks before she was to make her mark on the International Winter Olympics in Norway, figure skater Nancy Kerrigan was brutally clubbed in the knees by assailants later identified as part of rival skater Tonya Harding's entourage. Kerrigan recovered and went on to win a silver medal.

CSUF's Athletic Year In Review

National third-place finishes by the baseball and men's soccer teams and the highest individual places ever by Titans in wrestling and track highlighted a 1993-94 at Cal State Fullerton.

For 13th-year Coach Al Mistri, it was easily the furthest the Titan soccer team had advanced in post-season play. In their third NCAA tournament, the Titans advanced the hard way, winning playoff games at Fresno State, San Diego and San Francisco — three sites where they hadn't won a single game in almost a decade. Fullerton qualified for the Soccer Final Four at Davidson College in North Carolina and lost to South Carolina, 1-0, with the Titan's No. 2 scorer, sophomore Matt Bradbury, on the sidelines due to too many yellow cards in the playoffs. Fullerton finished the year with a 16-7 record after finishing 5-2 for a share of second place in the Pacific Division of the Mountain Pacific Soccer Federation. Goalkeeper Mike Ammann earned third-team All-American status and Eddie Soto and Ken Hesse added all-regional honors.

Coach Augie Garrido's baseball team matched soccer's efforts while posting a 47-16 record. It was baseball's eighth trip to the College World Series in Omaha where they had posted championships in 1979 and 1984 and placed second in 1992. Fullerton won the Midwest I Regional Tournament in dramatic fashion in Stillwater, Oklahoma, beating host Oklahoma State in the title game, 6-5 in 10 innings. The Titans lost their CWS opener to Georgia Tech, 2-0, before bouncing back to eliminate defending national champion LSU, 20-6, and Florida State, 10-8. Needing two wins over Georgia Tech for a berth in the national championship game, the Titans lost a heartbreaker to the Yellow Jackets, 3-2 in 12 innings. A 15-5 mark was good for a share of the Big West Conference championship with Nevada and Long Beach State. Five different players earned All-American status on various teams and junior outfielder Dante Powell was the 22nd player selected in professional baseball's amateur draft, going on the first round to the San Francisco Giants.

Individual stars were wrestler Laszlo Molnar and distance runner Mike Tansley. Molnar gained the Titan's highest ever finish ever in the NCAA championships when the unseeded senior placed second at 167 pounds. His points helped the Titans finish 23rd as a team with three other qualifiers in Ken Workman (142), Dwayne Buth (190) and Jeff Maes (126).

Tansley, who won the Big West cross country championship in October in Brea, came back in May to win the Big West steeplechase in Las Cruces. He later became the first Titan to qualify for the Div. I national finals and placed sixth — third among American citizens — to win All-American honors at Boise, Idaho.

Traditionally strong seasons were turned in by the women's gymnastics and softball teams.

Coach Lynn Rogers guided a young women's gymnastics team to another Big West Conference title and a team berth in the NCAA regionals. The Titans had the 15th best qualifying score to miss the 12-team nationals, but Celeste Delia and Cristi Clifford advanced as individuals, placing 30th and 34th, respectively, in the all-around.

Coach Judi Garman rallied a slow-starting softball team to a strong finish. The Titans roared down the stretch to place third in the Big West and qualify for post-season play for the 15th time in as many tries. Seeded No. 3 in the 4-team regional at Northridge, the Titans twice beat Washington and split with the host Matadors to force a final game which they lost 0-4, to the eventual national runnersup. Fullerton had a 35-29 record and second baseman Monica Bagalayos earned second-team all-regional honors.

Men's cross country and women's fencing also gave good efforts for Cal State Fullerton. Tansley led the Titan men to a second place finish while Shirley Chan was selected the top female fencer in the conference. She placed 6th at regionals with Lisa Petanella as 7th.

Alma Mater

Where the mountains and the oceans lie nearby on either side.
Fair and gleaming tall in sunlight stands the Titans home and pride.

Every color, creed, persuasion finds a welcome in these halls.
Never languishing unheeded, 'til the love of learning palls.
Fair and gleaming tall in sunlight stands the Titans home and
pride.

Summer hills like tawny lions, winter mountains cloaked with snow,
Land of stately eucalyptus where the mind and spirit grow.
Fair and gleaming tall in sunlight stands the Titans home and pride.
